Hi Everyone.

Spring is coming to an end and Summer is starting soon but we're still cheering on our Avalanche heading into the second round of the Stanley Cup Playoffs, still celebrating the DU Pioneers 10th National Championship from the recent Frozen Four tournament in Minnesota, and still excited for the Nuggets starting their quest for a back-to-back NBA championship. Although the Mammoth didn't make the playoffs they did have some exciting matches this past season.

Sports are still in full swing for the Rockies and the Mammoth. We sold out of our Rockies home opener tickets and happily the Rockies won! Though the Rockies are struggling right now it's still fun to head to the ballpark for a game especially when we have a group event and there is either a giveaway or Fireworks! See inside for info. Also inside is info on the Mammoth discount games coming up.

The May offerings for the end of the Colorado Symphony's 2024 season at Boettcher are included. here are still theater offerings at the Denver Center. Information on May and June offerings is inside. Planning is in progress for our annual picnic targeted for either July or August. More info will be provided once things are solidified.

We have another movie event—bring the whole family for The Garfield Movie; Special pricing for Kids! See in side for more info and get your tickets now!

For events in the works, when details are finalized they will be posted on our various media sites and sent out via email blast. Note that we only use your email to send out periodic info on club events especially events that sell out quickly so sign up to make sure you never miss out on the latest club news.

Our mainliner stores at DIA and the Flight Training Center are open and the online store orders are filling and shipping regularly. Store sales fun the discounts on our events, so shop early and often!

Follow the Denver Mainliner Club on Twitter at Denver Mainliner Club @DenverMainliner, on Instagram at Denver Mainliner or access by QR code. Keep up to date with the latest offerings on our website, get on the email list, or join us on Twitter or Instagram.

Have a great May and June. See you next time with more fun events!

Preludes 6:00 PM (PR) & SAT) & 12:00 PM (SUN) with Assistant Principal ANDRÉ BÉGIN

Talkbacks SAT, May 11, 2024 with conductor JUN MARIK and violinist STEFAN JACKLI

Featured Artists

Jun Marik, conductor
Stefan Jackli, violin

Description

For much of his life, Johannes Brahms felt the omnipresent weight of Beethoven's shadow looming over him but by the time he reached this, his third and perhaps most stirring symphony, he had emphatically found his own unique voice and flourished into an icon in his own right. The Third is richly Romantic, featuring sweeping, lyrical string lines and beautifully autumnal woodwind passages that make this symphony a delight from start to finish.

Electrifying violinist Stefan Jackli — called “one of the most insightful violinists of his generation” by The Boston Globe — lends his athletic virtuosity to Prokofiev's Second Violin Concerto which features a lively and dance-like final movement that will leap off the stage under the baton of Jun Marik.

Repertoire

SHYLLA Prelude to Act II: “On the Cliffs of Cornwall” from The Wreckers
PROKOFIEV Violin Concerto No. 2 in G minor, Op. 41
BRAMMS Symphony No. 3 in F major, Op. 90

A Sea Symphony with the Colorado Symphony Chorus

Description

Celebrate 40 years of the world-renowned Colorado Symphony Chorus with a renewal of Vaughan Williams' A Sea Symphony, utilizing text from Walt Whitman's Leaves of Grass, and employing a chorus throughout the entirety of the work in groundbreaking fashion. Over a hundred years earlier, Beethoven's symphonic debut started the genre established by Mozart and Haydn on a journey that would eventually evolve into Vaughan Williams' vivid, chorus-driven masterpieces.

Founded in 1984 by Dwain Wolfe, the Colorado Symphony Chorus has flourished into an internationally respected ensemble, making it the preferred choice for the chorus of the Aspen Music Festival and for orchestras touring through the Grand Valley Music Festival. Celebrate their Ruby Anniversary with a choral spectacular alongside Principal Conductor Peter Oundjian and the Colorado Symphony.

Repertoire

BEETHOVEN Symphony No. 1 in C major, Op. 21
VAUGHAN WILLIAMS Symphony No. 1, “A Sea Symphony”

An Alpine Symphony with Peter Oundjian

Description

Your Colorado Symphony and Principal Conductor Peter Oundjian present an unforgettable sendoff to our Centennial Season, highlighted by a fitting homage to the Centennial State with Richard Strauss' An Alpine Symphony.

Musically recreating a day's mountain climb, it begins in the hours before sunrise, which are painted in dark and somber tones before the bossy emergence of the sun sets the climbers on their way to a rhythmic, rising theme. A grand trombone fanfare and rich orchestral passages create the glorious panorama revealed at the summit while the descent is represented by falling intervals and a clever inversion of the rising theme heard during the ascent. Back at the mountain's base, night has come as Strauss brings the listener full circle.

Pianist Bruce Liu — a rising star who rose to widespread renown in 2021 after winning the XVII International Chopin Piano Competition — breathes new life into Prokofiev's Third Piano Concerto, containing the composer's trademark magic and virtuosity, part of a monumental season finale that will leave you simply spellbound.

Prelude & Talkback

Join your Colorado Symphony for Preludes & Talkbacks — events to enhance your experience during CLASSIC performances!

Talkback (S, May 26, 2024) with Principal Conductor Peter Oundjian and pianist Bruce Liu

Repertoire

WHERE DID WE SIT ON THE BUS?

 Approximately 1 hour and 20 minutes with no intermission

<https://www.denvercenter.org/tickets-events/where-did-we-sit-on-the-bus/>

Nine-year-old Bee Quijada sits in a suburban classroom. During a history lesson on Rosa Parks, she asks, “Where did Latinos sit on the bus?”

What follows is a theatrical mixtape of Bee’s life. It’s a one-person show that immerses the audience in elaborate, layered soundscapes by fusing Latin rhythms, hip-hop, and spoken word poetry. And it’s all made, in-person, in real time, through the magic of live music and storytelling.

Where Did We Sit on the Bus? captures both the innocence of youth and the pressures that come with being the child of immigrants. It asks, “What is my place? Where do I fit in?” It builds from the ground up, one step at a time, taking audiences on a soulful musical journey as its hero finds hope and meaning through art.

THE LEHMAN TRILOGY
 Approximately 3 hours and 20 minutes with two 10-minute intermissions

<https://www.denvercenter.org/tickets-events/the-lehman-trilogy/>

Winner of the 2022 Tony Award for Best Play!

Hailed as “a genuinely epic production” by The New York Times (original New York run), The Lehman Trilogy follows three German-Jewish immigrant brothers, and their descendants, as they navigate fire, flood, war, and panic to build a financial behemoth that changed America.

In 1847, the Lehman brothers open a modest clothing shop in Alabama. But they have big dreams. They evolve as new opportunities arise. They capitalize on railroads, oil booms, personal computers, and, eventually, capital itself. They become so intertwined with the U.S. government, and in the daily lives of millions of stakeholders, that some begin to believe that Lehman Brothers, the institution, is too big to fail.

This extraordinary feat of storytelling uses only three actors to trace 163 years of family history and business. Until one day, in 2008, when it all comes crashing down...

PHONE RINGS, DOOR CHIMES, IN COMES COMPANY.

Winner of 5 Tony Awards including Best Revival of a Musical, Company is “sophisticated, intimate and in-tune with the currents of modern life—brilliantly conceived and funny as hell.” (Variety). Helmed by three-time Tony Award-winning director Marianne Elliott (War Horse, The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time, Angels in America) this revelatory new production of Stephen Sondheim and George Furth’s groundbreaking musical comedy is boldly sophisticated, deeply insightful, and downright hilarious.

It’s Bobbie’s 35th birthday party, and all her friends keep asking, Why isn’t she married? Why can’t she find the right man and isn’t it time to settle down and start a family? As Bobbie searches for answers, she discovers why being single, being married, and being alive in the 21st-century could drive a person crazy.

Company features Sondheim’s award-winning songs You Could Drive a Person Crazy, The Ladies Who Lunch, Side by Side by Side and the iconic Being Alive. Let’s all drink to that.

Broadway's Next Hit Musical

⌚ Approximately 105 minutes including one intermission. Due to the improvised nature of the show, run times will vary.

<https://www.denvercenter.org/tickets-events/broadways-next-hit-musical/>

“Improv, Stand-up Comedy & Live Music made up ON THE SPOT!”
The New York Times calls Broadway's Next Hit Musical “Hilarious!”
Time Out NY says “At last! A musical of, for, and by the people.”

Whose Line Is It Anyway meets The Tony Awards

Every song is fresh. Every scene is new. Every night is different. It's all improvised and it's all funny.

Broadway's Next Hit Musical is the only unscripted theatrical awards show. Have you heard of the TONY awards? Well, Broadway's Next Hit Musical is...The PHONY Awards! The audience members write down made up song titles and our master improvisers gather these suggestions and present them as “nominated songs” for this coveted award. We create spontaneous scenes and songs filled with great dancing, catchy melodies, and tons of laughter. The audience votes for their favorite song and watches as the cast turns that song into a full blown improvised musical – complete with memorable characters, witty dialogue, and plot twists galore. BNHM has been seen recently throughout the United States and in New York City at The Triad Theater, The Tribeca Film Festival, and at The New York Musical Theater Festival, among many other locations.

Under the direction of improv veterans Rob Schiffmann and Deb Rabbai, TheaterWeek hailed the show as “brilliant” and The New York Post called Broadway's Next Hit Musical “remarkable.”
